

1. Purpose

- 1.1 The Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter (Charter) governs the operations of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee. It sets out the Remuneration and Nomination Committee's role and responsibilities, composition, structure and membership requirements.
- 1.2 The Remuneration and Nomination Committee is established by the Board of the Company (Board). The purpose of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee is to assist the Board by:
- (a) providing advice in relation to remuneration packages of senior executives, non-executive Directors and executive Directors, equity-based incentive plans and other employee benefit programs;
 - (b) reviewing the Company's recruitment, retention and termination policies;
 - (c) reviewing the Company's superannuation arrangements;
 - (d) reviewing succession plans of senior executives and executive Directors;
 - (e) recommending individuals for nomination as members of the Board and its committees;
 - (f) ensuring the performance of senior executives and members of the Board are reviewed at least annually;
 - (g) considering those aspects of the Company's remuneration policies and packages, including equity-based incentives, which should be subject to shareholder approval;
 - (h) monitoring the size and composition of the Board; and
 - (i) reviewing the Company's diversity policy and its effectiveness.

2. Membership

- 2.1 The Remuneration and Nomination Committee will have a minimum of three members. At any time the composition of the Board permits, the Remuneration and Nomination Committee shall also consist of only non-executive Directors, and a majority of independent Directors.
- 2.2 The Remuneration and Nomination Committee, where the composition of the Board allows, will be chaired by an independent Chair appointed by the Board from time to time.
- 2.3 Members will be appointed for a period of no more than one year, with Remuneration and Nomination Committee members generally being eligible for re-appointment for so long as they remain directors of the Board. The terms of appointment are:
- (a) Members may resign upon reasonable notice in writing to the Remuneration and Nomination Committee Chair.

- (b) A member may from time to time be immediately removed by notice in writing under the hand of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee Chair.
 - (c) Ceasing to be a director of the Board is the automatic termination of appointment as a member of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee.

3. Meetings

- 3.1 The Remuneration and Nomination Committee will meet as often as necessary, but must meet at least twice a year and one of those meetings must take place at least two months prior to each annual general meeting.
- 3.2 The Chair of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee must call a meeting of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee if so requested by any Remuneration and Nomination Committee member, the Managing Director / Chief Executive Officer or the Company Secretary.
- 3.3 The Remuneration and Nomination Committee may invite other persons, such as internal specialists or external advisers, to attend meetings if considered appropriate by the Chair of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee.
- 3.4 The quorum necessary for a meeting of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee shall be two members.

4. Secretary

- 4.1 The Company Secretary will act as the Secretary of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee and will attend all Remuneration and Nomination Committee meetings.
- 4.2 The Company Secretary, in conjunction with the Chair of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee, must prepare an agenda to be circulated to each Remuneration and Nomination Committee member at least two full working days prior to each meeting of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee.

5. Reporting

- 5.1 The Chair of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee must report the findings and recommendations of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee at the next Board meeting following each meeting of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee.
- 5.2 The minutes of all Remuneration and Nomination Committee meetings will be circulated to members of the Board by the Company Secretary.
- 5.3 The Remuneration and Nomination Committee must approve:
 - (a) the details to be published in the Company's annual report or any other statutory report or document with respect to the activities and responsibilities of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee; and

- (b) any statement on the Company's remuneration policy and executive compensation disclosures that may be required by law or other regulatory requirements (including any such statement to be included in the Company's annual report).
